Via Emanuele Gianturco, 19 80077 Ischia Porto

Staying in Grand Hotel Excelsior lets you relive the unforgettable moments while visiting the island of Ischia. The spacious interiors decorated with precious abstract paintings of contemporary artists from collections of Earl Mikandzheli are keeping the atmosphere full of comfort and luxury. Original architectural forms, an exquisite furniture, tapestries handmade are combined with attractive azure thermal pools surrounded by Mediterranean vegetation and the mysterious blue sea gleaming nearby.

Location: It is located in the centre of Ischia Porto, 150 meters from the promenade area of the island. Hotel is set in amidst a luxuriant garden where along with shrubs and flowers of the Mediterranean maquis you can also find tropical vegetation.

Hotel La Reginella

Corso Angelo Rizzoli, 154/156/158 80076 Lacco Ameno (Isola d'Ischia)

When the founder of tourism on the island of Ischia Angelo Rizzoli gave the name to this hotel "La Reginella", which means «princess», his first comment was: "Here is my baby ..." He was particularly fond of this small and elegant house. It is a place of rest, which presented an inspiration and shelter to many representatives of art elite in the days when Ischia had a glory of being a secluded place which gave a relaxation to your body and regenerate the power of a true talent. The hotel's history is inextricably connected with the names of celebrities such as Mina, Peppino Di Capri, Paul Anka, Walter Chiari, Hugo Kalize, Marino Barreto and others. Currently, the hotel is a charming complex consisting of 2 buildings: the main «La Reginella» and a small one «O` Pignatiello». Built in Mediterranean style, it is decorated with colorful Neapolitan majolica handmade, while the interior and rooms are painted in pastel bright colors. Numerous stained glass windows, paintings and other elegant details create a refined, romantic and pleasant atmosphere. There is a large garden full of subtropical plants, flowers and giant ferns; it frames several pools with mineral water of different temperatures. An outdoor restaurant, a bar, a tennis court, fashion boutiques and small cafes nearby, a vicinity of the sea and the thermal park «Negombo» – everything that creates perfect conditions for a nice and pleasant rest, the reminiscences of which will attract you to return to the «Emerald Island» again and again.

Location: The hotel «La Reginella & O'Pignatello» is located in the heart of cozy town of Lacco Ameno, in the square of Restituita, surrounded by fashion boutiques and small cafes, and a few steps from seaside and the thermal park of «Negombo». Thanks to its comfortable position, offers many opportunities for real rest and place to walk, the bus stop is nearby the hotel, so you can easily get to any part of the beautiful island.

Hotel Bellevue Syrene

Piazza della Vittoria, 5 80067 Sorrento

A five star hotel peaking on the waves, with terraces dominating the Gulf of Naples and a postcard Vesuvius on the background, The Bellevue Syrene, one of Sorrento's well-known hotels, is located in a place of timeless beauty.

Born as a patrician residence, then became a villa, the five star Bellevue Hotel of Sorrento is opened all year and offers a modern hospitality which has its roots in a tradition that seduced intellectuals, artists and heads of State.

Bellevue Syrene rose up on the splendid remains of a majestic villa, a home destined to the otium of the highest Roman aristocracy, among them Emperor Augustus himself. In 1750 the Mastrobuono counts built a house there, which in 1820 became a delightful hotel. Kings such as Lugwig II of Bavaria, Victor Emmanuel III, Paul of Greece, Empresses such as Eujénie de Montijo, to whom is dedicated one of the villa's most beautiful frescos, writers such as Turgenev, Jorge, Marguerite Yourcenar, all of which, no exceptions, remained fascinated and stunned once they arrived at this place.

Hotel Parco dei Principi

Via Bernardino Rota, 44 80067 Sorrento

The land on which the hotel is located belonged to the Order of the Jesuits until the eighteenth century when the King of Naples, Ferdinand IV of Bourbon acquired the property and gave a part of it to his cousin Paul Leopold of Bourbon, Count of Syracuse.

In 1792 the Count built Villa Poggio Siracusa whose sumptuous rooms hosted dames and barons eager to leisure in that joyful Eden. In 1885 the new owners started the striking creation of a dacha in the English Gothic style to be used for a future visit of the Tsar Nicholas II of Russia.

The hotel is located right on the remains of the never completed dacha.

Roberto Fernandes, the Neapolitan engineer, bought the land in 1959 and commissioned the architect Gio Ponti to transform the place into a hotel.

The Parco dei Principi hotel was inaugurated on 11 April 1962 and since then remains the evidence of the absolute and joyful intuition of the engineer Fernandes.

Location: Parco dei Principi is located in a garden of 27 thousand square meters overlooking the sea, in one of the most popular locations loved by tourists from all over the world. The hotel is located a few km from the centre and the port of Marina Piccola, at the centre of a must-see tourist-cultural itinerary.

Grand Hotel Cocumella

Via Cocumella, 7 80065 Sant'Agnello

The Grand Hotel Cocumella is the most ancient 5 stars luxury hotel in the Sorrento Peninsula. This wonderful garden, extended to the sea, became in 1637 the residence of Jesuits, then since 1777 an inn, and finally a hotel. In 1978 Nino del Papa began the careful restoration that turned the residence into the enchanting "island in the peninsula", a luxury boutique hotel with an astonishing view on the sea of Sorrento.

Today the careful and masterful restoration project by the architect Nino del Papa is transformed into the enchanting "oasis of the peninsula". The ancient cloister and church, its elegant rooms, the silence of its gardens, the spectacular terrace and suggestive coves that descend to the sea, have welcomed the most illustrious travelers of the Grand Tour from Goethe to Mary Shelley, from Hans Christian Andersen to Sigmund Freud during more than 200 years. Even nowadays it conserves the wonders and the precious heritage of history and art of all times.

Location: Nestled between sea and sky, Boutique Hotel Cocumella is where the soul inflames your senses. From here, effortlessly, you will discover the Amalfi Coast, the ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum, the Islands of Capri and Ischia, and all the facets of Naples.

NH Collection Grand Hotel Convento di Amalfi

Via Annunziatella, 46 84011 Amalfi

This cliff-top luxury hotel in Amalfi is a converted 13th-century monastery, featuring a fascinating Arab-Norman cloister and the famous "Passeggiata dei Monaci" (once the walkway used by the monks and nowadays a panoramic trail where guests can enjoy the Mediterranean garden and a spectacular panorama of the coastline). Reached by lift, it's a lofty world of its own, including church, cloister, lemon groves and pool. The bare cliff towers above, the terraced gardens drop almost vertically below and the building, exuding a monastic air and fittingly decorated in calm, contemporary, undemanding – verging on bland – fashion, stretches between the half-ruined cloisters and Baroque-style church at one end and gorgeous infinity pool and outdoor restaurant La Locanda at the other.

Location: Amalfi centre is a 5-minute walk away downhill. The picturesque town of Positano is 40 minutes' drive away. The hardly noticeable ground floor entrance to the hotel stands on a bend, with temporary parking, of the famous SS163 Amalfitana coast road, on the edge of Amalfi. From there, a lift whisks guests high above to seven floors with access to reception, church and cloister, Monks' Walk (now the fabulous terrace), gardens, pool, restaurant and bedrooms. The Grand Hotel Convento di Amalfi is perched on a cliff top 80 meters above the sea level, in a unique location featuring unparalleled views over the quaint Amalfi Coast.

Hotel Santa Caterina

S.S. Amalfitana, 9 84011 Amalfi

Offering breathtaking views of the Amalfi Coast, Hotel Santa Caterina is an Art Nouveau villa built on a rock that overlooks the sea. It offers many terraces and a beautiful pool, all with sea views. A mix of familial warmth, glamour and professionalism makes Hotel Santa Caterina standing out from the competition. Now run by the fourth generation of the family that opened it as a hotel in 1904, it's the sort of homely yet sophisticated place that you long to return to. Family antiques pepper the cool, white interiors, which are splashed with Mediterranean colour on patterned tiles and fabrics. The airy dining room has a stunning blue Brazilian-marble floor and a lovely terrace overlooking gardens and sea. The big surprise is the glass lift that whooshes down the cliff where the delightful pool, bar, beach-shack restaurant, sea and waiting boats.

Location: Just outside Amalfi, the hotel is usefully placed for visits to Ravello (30 minutes by bus) and the famous VIP resort of Positano is a 15-minute drive away. Though the front of the elegant, 19th-century mansion is roadside, all is calm inside and the hotel's citrus groves, pergola walks, terraces and gardens tumble to the sea behind.

Grand Hotel Vesuvio

Via Partenope, 45 80122 Napoli

Since 1882 the Grand Hotel Vesuvio has reflected the essence of luxurious Neapolitan hospitality.

Naples, the romantic heart of Italy's Campania region, has a long history of drawing creative types, and the Grand Hotel Vesuvio has housed such big names as King Juan Carlos I and Queen Sofia of Spain, Woody Allen, Ranya of Jordan and Julia Roberts. Known for its spacious suites and impeccable service, the Belle Époque property occupies a prime waterfront position along the Santa Lucia Harbor. The hotel is just a few minutes from the bustling streets of Naples, whose cityscapes prompt references to another artist: Fellini. Interiors evoke old-world opulence with chandeliers, antiques and grand marble bathrooms. Many guest rooms, which feature modern striped color schemes, have private balconies with stunning views of Sorrento, the island of Capri and the Mount Vesuvius.

Location: Located on the sea front with a breathtaking view of the Bay of Naples, Grand Hotel Vesuvio is only a few steps from Royal Palace, Plebiscito Square and the San Carlo Theatre. The hotel is opposite the Castel dell'Ovo in the historic quarter of Santa Lucia. The port for boats to Capri, Sardinia and other destinations is 15 minutes' walk away.
